

Delia Memorial School (Hip Wo No.2 College)

Report for the Use of 2023-24 Capacity Enhancement Grant (CEG)

Targets	Strategies	Success Criteria	Methods of Evaluation	Evaluation	Resources
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● To improve the English ability of students by offering English remedial class after school ● To cater for individual learning differences of students (streaming of English lessons) ● To organize different cross-curricular activities for students in order to encourage them to use English more often 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● To provide English remedial class after school for students who are weak in English in order to enhance their English foundation ● To provide extra help during lesson time to existing English Teachers so that individual learning differences can be entertained. ● To provide room for teachers to carry out cross-curricular activities to allow students to use English in a more authentic way. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● 70% or above attendance rate for the remedial class ● 5% increase in the participants' annual English results ● Individual learning differences of students (streaming of English lessons in senior forms) should be handled so students can learn in a more focused way in class. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Attendance rate ● Students' Test and Exam results ● Feedback from Teachers and Students 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● The attendance rate of the after-school remedial English classes conducted by the teacher employed under the CEG was around 97%. ● Comparing the average annual results of S4 & S5 students who had benefitted from streamed English lessons in 2023-24 with their results from the previous year revealed an increase of approximately 5% in their English results. ● The arrangement of the streaming classes was welcomed by all the teachers and students, and they had expressed a wish for this measure to be continued to benefit both the teachers and the students. 	CEG Funding of $261,184 & our school resources for the employment of an extra English teacher